

AGREEMENT FOR SERVICES AND CONSENT TO TEMPORARY CARE/CUSTODY

This Agreement for Services and Consent to Temporary Care/Custody (“Agreement”) is made this [redacted] day of [redacted] between [redacted] (“Permanent Guardian”) and LifeLine Animal Project (“LifeLine” or “Temporary Guardian”). Permanent Guardian is experiencing an unstable housing situation and desires to place Permanent Guardian’s pet(s) in the temporary care and custody of LifeLine, and LifeLine agrees to provide appropriate care for such pet(s). In consideration of the promises and the covenants herein contained, LifeLine and Permanent Guardian agree as follows:

Consent to Temporary Care/Custody

1. Permanent Guardian verifies that the pet(s) listed below belong to him or her. Permanent Guardian hereby delivers to LifeLine and LifeLine accepts from Permanent Guardian the pet(s) described below (list name, species, and breed of each animal):

2. Permanent Guardian confirms that Permanent Guardian has completed a Pet Information Page for each pet that Permanent Guardian delivers to LifeLine’s temporary care/custody, and that the Pet Information Page(s) contain all information about the pet(s) that may be necessary for LifeLine to determine how to best care for the pet(s). The Pet Information Page(s) are attached hereto as Exhibit A and are incorporated into this Agreement.
3. LifeLine agrees to take care of the pet(s) in its custody as described in this Agreement. Permanent Guardian hereby allows LifeLine and its volunteers, foster homes, agents, partners, and/or any entity partnering with or compensated by LifeLine to care for Permanent Guardian’s pet(s).
4. Pets may only be dropped off or picked up at a location agreed upon in advance by LifeLine.
5. Permanent Guardian agrees to pay $ [redacted] total per day to help cover cost of boarding for their pet(s).

Eligibility for LifeLine Assistance

- 6. Approval for temporary housing must be confirmed by a member of LifeLine’s Community Programs teams and/or LifeLine management.
- 7. Permanent Guardian understands that LifeLine is not an adoption program. Permanent Guardian intends to reclaim their pet(s) within the time limit set forth below.
- 8. Permanent Guardians may not use Lifeline’s temporary housing services more than two (2) times in a three-year period.

Time Limit

- 9. LifeLine agrees to provide up to the specified number of days listed below (the “Time Limit”) of pet housing and basic veterinary care to the pet(s) listed in this Agreement. LifeLine, in its sole discretion, will determine the duration of assistance provided. In no event shall LifeLine become obligated to keep the pet(s) for longer than the specified Time Limit.

Latest day for reclaim: _____ LifeLine initials: _____

- 10. LifeLine will notify Permanent Guardian by phone, email, or letter if Permanent Guardian is nearing the end of the Time Limit. The Time Limit may be extended only by the mutual written consent of Permanent Guardian and LifeLine.
- 11. Once the Time Limit has expired, all pets are deemed relinquished by Permanent Guardian. Relinquished pet(s) may be put up for adoption, surrendered to animal control, sent to a rescue partner, or euthanized. _____ Initials of Permanent Guardian
- 12. LifeLine reserves the right to terminate services and require Permanent Guardian to retrieve the pet(s) before the expiration of the Time Limit. If this occurs, LifeLine will make reasonable efforts to provide ample notice of termination to Permanent Guardian. However, if LifeLine terminates services and is unable, after reasonable efforts, to reach Permanent Guardian, the pet(s) will be considered relinquished.

13. Permanent Guardian has the right to reclaim custody of their pet(s) any time before the Time Limit expires.
14. Permanent Guardian agrees to reclaim Permanent Guardian's pet(s) within 24 hours after moving into pet-friendly housing and securing all necessary landlord approval.
15. If Permanent Guardian decides to move out of the State of Georgia, Permanent Guardian must make arrangements with LifeLine to pick up their pet(s) before moving.

Pet Housing

16. While the pet(s) are in LifeLine's temporary care/custody, LifeLine reserves the right to determine where each pet is housed, including a boarding facility, foster home, our shelters, or combination thereof. It is in LifeLine's sole discretion whether or not to disclose the location of the pet to the Permanent Guardian.
17. LifeLine reserves the right to relocate any pet without first notifying Permanent Guardian.
18. All costs of pet lodging will be covered by LifeLine, unless otherwise specified above in writing and signed by Permanent Guardian and LifeLine.

Veterinary Care

19. LifeLine will provide, at no cost to Permanent Guardian, only the following veterinary services (as needed): Vaccinations (Rabies, DHLPP, Bordetella, FVRCP); Feline Leukemia/FIV Test; Microchip; Wellness Exam; Spaying and Neutering.
20. Permanent Guardian authorizes all necessary medical procedures required for LifeLine assistance, which may include, but is not limited to, the following procedures: vaccinations, testing, treatment for internal and/or external parasites, treatment of illnesses or symptoms. Permanent Guardian grants LifeLine, and any vet in LifeLine's sole discretion, permission to perform any medical tests and procedures deemed necessary to identify any medical concern and maintain the pet's health.
21. Permanent Guardian understands that, if the pet has a known or unknown pre-existing health condition, LifeLine will not be responsible for the treatment and possible cure of any disease or condition. Examples include, but are not limited to: heartworm disease, diabetes, cancer, broken bones, burns, glaucoma, etc.

22. A LifeLine representative will contact Permanent Guardian in the event that a pet may require euthanasia. Reasons for euthanasia include severe injury or terminal illness.
23. If veterinary inspection indicates that a pet has been abused or neglected, LifeLine reserves the right to press charges against the abuser(s) under the Georgia Animal Protection Act, O.C.G.A. § 4-11-1.

Communication While Pet(s) Are in the Temporary Care/Custody of LifeLine

24. Even if Permanent Guardian knows the location of Permanent Guardian's pet(s), all communication with the foster home or boarding facility must go through a LifeLine representative.
25. LifeLine does not guarantee that Permanent Guardian will be able to visit Permanent Guardian's pet(s) during the period of time that the pet(s) are in LifeLine's temporary care/custody. However, LifeLine will make reasonable efforts to facilitate visits if Permanent Guardian so desires.
26. Permanent Guardians are required to maintain contact with a LifeLine representative on a weekly basis and to apprise LifeLine of any changes in housing status (such as a move, an approved application for an apartment, etc.) within 24 hours. LifeLine reserves the right to change the type and amount of assistance offered to Permanent Guardian as a result of changes in Permanent Guardian's status.

Legal Responsibilities

27. Permanent Guardian retains full responsibility for any and all damage or injury to person or property caused by the pet(s).
28. For and in consideration of LifeLine agreeing to provide temporary care of the pet(s), Permanent Guardian agrees that they will not hold LifeLine or its volunteers, representatives, or agents liable for anything that may happen to the pet(s), including but not limited to illness, disease, physical escape (loss), or death.

29. Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of Georgia.

30. This Agreement is the entire agreement of the parties, and there are no oral promises or representations made in addition hereto. This Agreement may only be changed in a writing signed by both LifeLine and Permanent Guardian. This Agreement shall continue in full force and effect until the expiration of the Time Limit or terminated by either party in writing.
